

CISA (Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency)

government agency in the United States responsible for strengthening the country's cybersecurity and safeguarding critical infrastructure. CISA was established as part of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in 2018 when President Donald Trump signed the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency Act into law.

Objectives :

- Cybersecurity
- Infrastructure Security
- Emergency Communications
- Information Sharing
- Incident Response

DevSecOps organization & projects